The ladies of the Congregational society gave a sale of useful and fancy articles at the town hall on the evenings of Aug. 20 and 21, which was largely attended by the townspeople and from adjoining towns. The East Barre band very generously furnished first class music and Miss Emma Nelson gave a reading in a very acceptable manner the first evening and Misses Williams of Barre and Miss Sadie Eastman of East Barre gave some very excellent music, and Miss Ethel Strong of East Barre gave two readings in her best style which is not to be surpassed. For all of which many thanks are rendered. After paying all expenses the society realized the neat sum of $126.

Letter to Morse & Jackson, Barre, Vt.

Dear Sir: Here's a bully one. Mr. Dooley (not of Chicago), painter, Lancaster, N. H., got the job of painting the Episcopal parsonage. He was used to a paint as pure as Devos, but weak and short measure—he didn't know it was weak or short measure. Dooley surveyed the job, and said it would take 20 gallons.

Mr. L. P. Moore, our agent, offered to give 10 gallons Devos. Accepted of course. Eleven gallons did it; the 10 plus one. Mr. Moore isn't painting parsonages on shares this year.

Yours truly,

F. W. Devos & Co.
